

KEEP THIS TRAVEL CHECKLIST HANDY

- Leash, collar and harness
- Poop scoop and poop bags
- Paper towels and wet wipes
- Treats and toys for comfort, playing and chewing
- Crate, crate liner, towels, blankets, bed and a pillow
- Veterinary records, certificates and a recent photo of your cat
- Lots of water from your old home and your cat's usual foods
- Food and water bowls, a can opener if necessary and containers to keep food sealed
- Everything else you'll need for the first day at the new home

Feed your cat 12 hours before a long trip and ask your veterinarian for anti-sickness meds if your pet suffers from travel sickness.
